

Conecting GeneratiON

Seminar in Spain

- Location: Zarautz - San Sebastian, Basque Country, Spain
- Start: 20/09/2016
- End: 26/09/2016

We decided to gather different generations, young and elder people in a seminar “Connecting Generations” where they will have a possibility to communicate and work together on social media through non formal methods. We think there is a gap between the generations nowadays and we believe the main reason is a lack of communication. There are many ways of receiving and sharing information with millions of people in the world and one of them is social media. The idea is to give the participants a possibility to find out and share more about this type of media therefor we think it could fill the gap in between the generations where both would actively involve in social life. The project will also give other opportunities to participants like interact, find similarities and differences, break stereotypes, become more tolerant and understanding and etc..

Our objectives are:

- to connect different generations through social media
- to exchange experiences and knowledge between the generations
- to combat the gap between the generations
- to break stereotypes
- to promote equality, tolerance and understanding

In the project are presented 7 organizations from neighbouring and programme countries (including Spain), 5 participants from each (6 of the hosting country), 36 in total. The participants will be accommodated in a hostel in Zarautz. It's 20 Kilometers from San Sebastian.
